Description :

PDF-8d324 | The New Madrid Earthquake leveled seven states. Home and future destroyed, librarian Deborah Steele retreated to her isolated Indiana family farm and held on. It's been five years of desperate choices, but she and the women under contract to her have survived. Her cautious hopes for recovery are upended by the sight of a worker's contract being casually used as a marker in a poker game. She's... Tempered Steele
